to Smt. D. Anantaramaiya
Ration Officer, Bangalore

16) The minister discussed this with me yesterday - He said that 50/- was too little for one to maintain a car & for going round the city - He said also that other officers e.g. in the Secty are getting 75/-

17) I agree that one cannot maintain a car these days on Rs 50/- An allowance of Rs 75/- is the minimum

18) But Mr Anantaramaiya is getting another allowance of Rs 50/- for being in the ~~Food~~ dept So in the aggregate he gets 100/- & I suggest this should be enough -

19) All others in the Food dept who are to maintain cars & are also getting a C.A. of 50 & a D.A. of 50/- If Mr Anantaramaiya is shown any special treatment - these other officers also will claim that - allowance will involve additional extra cost -

20) By whatever name it is called an allowance of Rs 100/- for an officer of the Status of an Asst Comm is handsome enough & I beg to suggest that we may not go into the question of what part is for C.A. & what for other duty - Before the Govt of Indn sh these Mem

Bangalore City,
4. 1. 1945.

Dear Mr. Narasimhaiya,

In reply to my request for an interview with the Minister for Supplies, I have been advised to submit the representation through the Director of Food Supplies in Mysore.

I hasten to remove the impression, if any, that I am attempting any short-circuit. In my letter dated 8th December 1944 itself, seeking the interview, I have already stated that the Director of Food Supplies has formally placed each point before Government and I reiterate the same. There is therefore nothing for me to take up afresh.

May I expect to be heard?

Yours sincerely,

S.G. Narasimhaiya, Esq.,
Personal Assistant to the Minister for Supplies,
Public Offices,
BANGALORE.
